Principal's Message

As we look into our future it is always rewarding to reflect on where we have come from and recognize our accomplishments. Memories of the past take on new meaning as you continue on your journey towards the completion of high school and beyond.

My hope is that the memories you have created this past year at J. Percy Page are captured in the pages of this yearbook. As a student of "Page", it is important that you can look back and fondly remember your classmates, teachers and the life-long relationships and connections that you have made with your fellow "panthers".

I would like to thank you for making J. Percy Page your school of choice and I hope that you had a very rewarding and successful school year. Your contribution as a positive citizen and upstanding member of our learning community has left a lasting impression on our school. As principal, it has been a pleasure and a privilege to work with you this past year and I wish you all the best in your future.

"Success is nothing more than doing the very best you can with what you've got."
anonymous

Wishing you a very successful year!!

Bryan Radmanovich, Principal

Student Union is a group of extraordinary students who want to make the school year warm welcoming, exciting and rewarding for the students. It is our responsibility to build an atmosphere that makes students and teachers look forward to participating in day to day activities here at J. Percy Page. We try old and new events every year to make each school year more momentous than the last. Our school leaders are dedicated and hardworking students and that shows through the outstanding work they put into the events that are held here at J. Percy Page.

J. Percy Page Students' Union team is composed of spectacular leaders who are full of commitment and Panther Pride. This year's Student Union's executives came together with three goals: make this year a year to remember for those who have only just arrived and for those who are about to leave, provide each and every student with a sense of belonging, and spread Panther Pride throughout the school.

I'm honored to be the elected President of such an outstanding student body. The experience has been truly remarkable. Seeing the students who either participate or sit in the crowd cheering, having the time of their lives, has always brought a smile to my face and a sense of satisfaction that I've reached my goals.

As this year comes to an end and we all go on our separate paths I would like congratulate everyone on their successes, most especially, the graduates of 2013.

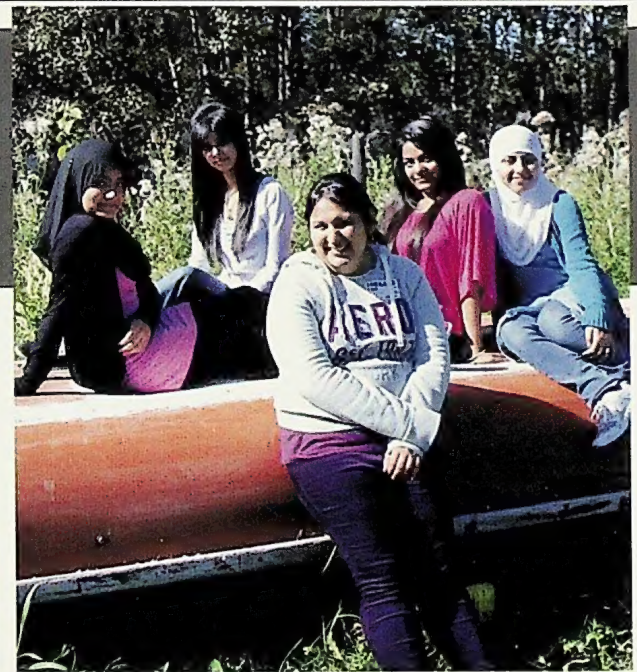

Once a panther, always a panther.

Samantha Verma, Student Union President

Bike-A-Thon

Bike-A-Thon 2013 raised $15,240.10 to make Campbell's Make-A-Wish Disney dream come true! In addition to this incredible accomplishment, the J. Percy Page Community was able to donate $14,712.07 to the Stollery Children's Hospital in memory of Frazer MacDairmid. Congratulations to everyone who contributed to our record breaking fundraising total of $29,952.17!

Frazer MacDairmid was diagnosed with a congenital heart defect before he was born. The tireless efforts of the doctors, nurses, and support staff at the Stollery Children's Hospital as they waited and hoped for a heart transplant, gave Frazer six precious weeks with his family before he passed away.

Tens

Grade ten can be tough. After enjoying your time as the big fish in a small junior high pond, you suddenly found yourself surrounded by more kids, by bigger kids, and by a whole new group of teachers. While you struggled with these new social realities, you were also trying to navigate a confusing new building, the credit system, and the requirements for a high school diploma. Well, you did it! You made it through the first year of high school. Great Job only two more years to go!

If you haven't done so already, my personal advice, as an assistant principal, as a teacher, as a father, and as a former grade ten student myself, would be to involve yourself in the life of your school as much as possible. From sports to intramurals, the arts to leadership, there are so many different ways to be involved and to try something new. Like life, your high school experience will be what you make it and there is no shortage of opportunity for you here at Page.

In addition to these personal and social opportunities, it is also time to take ownership of the academic responsibilities and choices before you. Make a plan for your life after high school for university, for trade school, or for the world of work. Doing research into the future you want for yourself will ensure you are where you want to be, with the marks you want to have, and the credits you need to make those dreams come true. Give yourself a Plan A and a Plan B.

Make the most out of your time here in high school. Work hard. Have fun. Challenge yourself. Do your best. It will pay off on graduation day and beyond.

Elevens

Like the middle child, grade eleven is often taken for granted. It doesn't have the newness or the excitement of grade ten. It doesn't have the finality or the exhilaration of grade twelve.

But grade eleven is an important year.

In grade eleven you moved away from the naïve, young person that you were when you arrived here at J. Percy Page in grade ten, towards the mature and responsible adult that you will be when you leave us at the end of grade twelve. While grade ten was a year frightening firsts, grade eleven is about knowing what you are up against, knowing how to tackle those challenges, and knowing what light is at the end of the tunnel. In grade eleven you truly set your course, invest in your place here, and begin to make your unique mark on this place and the people you share it with.

J. Percy Page school is the sum of its parts and you, as grade elevens, are a vitally important part of what we were, what we are, and what we will become as a community.

Grade elevens, you are especially important to me; we started our time here at Page together and what we have accomplished in this short time is something I am honoured to be a part of. Thank you. We are proud of you and we are grateful for all you have brought to the school and the community that we love.

Twelves

Congratulations to all our grade twelves on the completion of twelve years of school and for finishing your final year here at J. Percy Page High School. I've always believed that high school should not be the best years of your life but that these years should give you the best life possible.

You have done amazing things in the time you have spent here with us. Arts, athletics, and academics are only a few of the activities this year's graduating class were involved in that made the last three years worth remembering. This graduating class is filled with outstanding citizens. With young people who volunteered and raised countless dollars for many different charities. This graduating class is characterized by the support you each offered to your classmates and to your community; you supported your classmates and community ensuring not only that your year would be successful, but that those around you would experience success as well.

As you move forward, remember that your legacy at J. Percy Page will continue to grow. You will choose careers and activities to pursue for the rest of your lives that will benefit from the Panther Pride you developed during your time here. You will battle for what is right and you will battle to make the world a better place for others. You will do this because during your time in high school, you had opportunities to take chances, to make mistakes, and to be supported by some of the best teachers in the world. They cared for you. They cheered for you. They helped you get back up when you stumbled. They have wanted nothing but your success from the day you joined the Panther Pride.

Always remember that life is not easy and it is not guaranteed; you will get knocked down once in a while. It is not only important that you get back up, but that you get back up, dust yourself off, and move forward towards the next challenge. Become your own Millwoods Hero.

Narindar Riari, Assistant Principal

Everybody thinks that when the moment comes they'll know exactly what to do, but not everyone does, and you'll never know until you're tested. Because when your friends in trouble you don't think, you trust the instinct.

"Even though the days grow longer by the minute. I know there is hope in hope itself. When I'm growing tired, and I feel faith is drifting. I remember love is what I'm working toward."

We must always keep working, never losing faith that there is something more ahead. High school may be over, but there is still an entire world unknown to us.

It's been a long tough and stressful 3 years. I'd love to thank our wonderful teachers and staff, also my friends and family for their great help and support, I couldn't have made it without it you!!! Literally. I'm still in shock and can't believe the day has come...

Prisoner #14551196. Sentenced 3 years, finally out. Thanks to my mom and dad for their unconditional love and support. To my girls who stood beside me behind bars, much respect, and to the grads of 2013 good luck. High school was a great experience. My key to success is just to trying my best, stepping out of my confort zone and try something new. I figured out who the best teachers are like Mr and Mrs. Lyons, Mr. Jenkins, Mr.Kampen. Mrs.Rapiach and Mr.Roque. I make many great friends like Candace, Jody, and Olivia and enjoyed every moment of social 10 with Rupinder and Tayyaba. High school was lots of fun!

Gentleman, you will always remember this day as the day you almost caught Captain Jack Sparrow.

If you feel something in your heart it is meaningless unless you convey your emotions to that one special person. We should all do our best to Live, Love, and Laugh. Take what life gives us and never give up! Fight to the very end and always be true to ourselves and others. We only get so many chances so let's not waste them! Love to Live and be Loved.

"We did our best here. We came, we saw, we conquered. We believed, we went forward, and we inspired. In life we do things, some we wish we had never done, and some we can never quite let go of. These are the things that change us, that mold us into the adults we will become. And if we were to change anything about the past twelve years that we have spent in high school, we wouldnt be the people we are right now." So heres to us, GRAD 2013!

Closing the doors of Page will be quite sad, but as I stride away, I will remember my parents who were there in every possible way and of course my friends who I absolutely love. The jokes, the laughs, the tears, and the conversations that seemed to last forever; theyre carved memories that will never be forgotten. The ride has been good, but now it has come to an end. So bye Page, the memories will forever remain!

I want to thank everyone who helped me to grad this year, and especially Bedford who helped me with my art and inspired me so much! I have had so many good memories at Page and I can't wait to take the next step in life and grad! Education is an admirable thing, but it is well to remember from time to time that nothing worth knowing can be taught. Grad class 2013!! Congrats!! We did it! :D

Now that School has come to an end, the future awaits my presence; as I take all the colourful memories made in Page. How I will miss this immaturity, the arguments, the ever lasting friendships, the alternating crushes. Big thanks to all teachers, friends and my parents who gave their infinite support through this journey. The love, the joy, even the tears will never be forgotten. Once a panther, always a panther.

Valedictorian's Speech to the Graduates, an excerpt ~ Savanpreet Pandher

This is it; we have reached the point in our lives that we dreamed of as little children. We are finally done high school. We've all had days, weeks, and even months go by when we've been so busy with tests, sports, work, family, friends, hardships, and so on, that sleep was the last thing on our minds. High school life has been more than a handful and now it's time to enter the real world. Despite how overwhelmed we all may feel, that is no reason to fear the world that we are about to step into. We have been trained and conditioned all our lives, from kindergarten to now, for this glorious moment that we are all here to celebrate. We are all here to close this chapter in our lives so we can begin the next chapter. The years have blurred past and we have made genuine and real friendships that will definitely last a lifetime, and now we are here with nervous yet excited smiles and a sparkling gleam in our eyes. We are more than ready to cross this very stage, to receive our diploma, and to graduate, to officially be granted the freedom to pursue our dreams and become the person whom we are destined to be.

Fellow graduates, we have grown so much and we should be very proud of ourselves for all we have accomplished. Throughout our life so far our schooling has taught us more than we could ever imagine. We started with ABCs and 123s and now have a million times more knowledge than we once had. We've been enlightened by the elaborate works of William Shakespeare, we've attempted to describe the complicated and perplexing ideas of liberalism, solved the most mind-bending trigonometry questions, underwent in-depth analysis of the structures of the human body, and made colours change during titration reactions of chemicals. There are also people we've had that we will never forget. Overall our twelve years of education has nourished our curiosity, nurtured our thoughts and beliefs, as well as expanded our horizons to develop us into mature adults who are prepared to face the world, charged and ready to go.

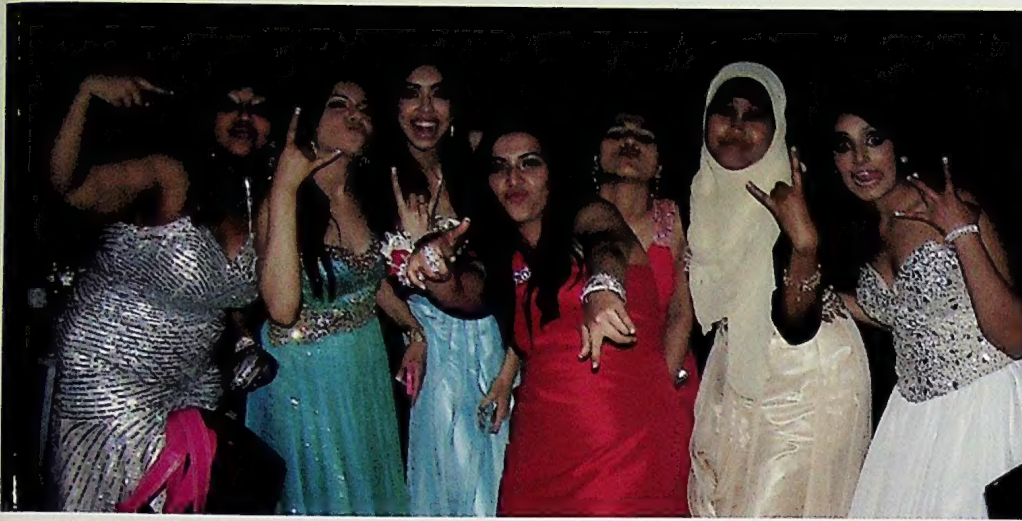

I have met and gotten to know many of you over the course of our three years here. This has simply been enough to fill me with the belief that you are all determined young adults who are compelled to follow your aspirations of success. You are all ambitious and eager to mold your future to accommodate your hopes and dreams. I want you to know that nothing can hold you back from the person you long to become, no one except you. Don't be afraid to raise your standards or try something new, the more doubt we have and what we can do the more we limit ourselves in our road to success. We need to have the motivation to strive, the capacity to work hard, and the burning desire to follow what we believe in. No matter what the situation never ever forget to smile and grateful for all that you have been given in life.

Remember, always keep illuminating the path in front of you and keep the doors of opportunity wide open. Be as bright as you possibly can, with perseverance and persistent dedication close at hand. Never turn your face away from the blazing sun because no matter how dazzling and brilliant it is, if you believe in yourself you can outshine that golden, incandescent ball of flames any day.

Congratulations graduating class of 2013! It's our time to shine!

Chur
~ Ayub Warsame

How lucky I am to have something that makes saying goodbye so hard.

I don't want to wake up and realize that this chapter of my life is quickly coming to an end, right before my eyes. I don't want to stop saying hellos for fear of saying the final goodbyes.

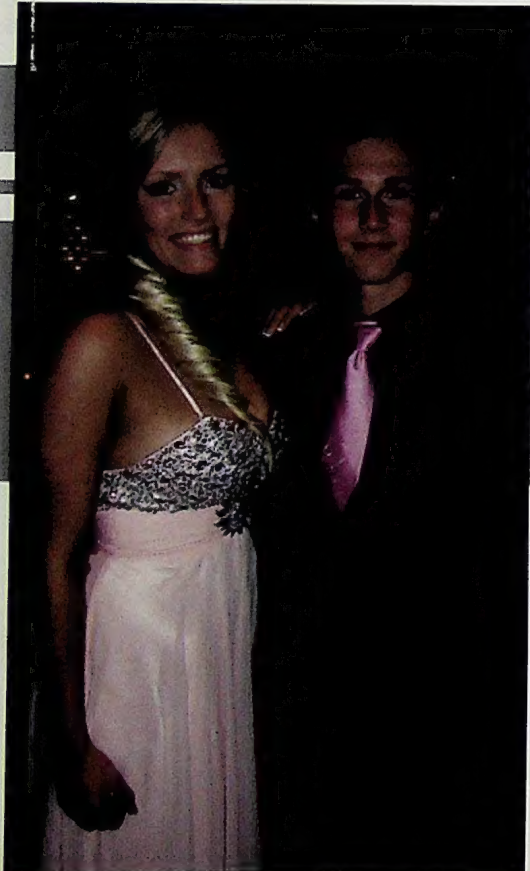

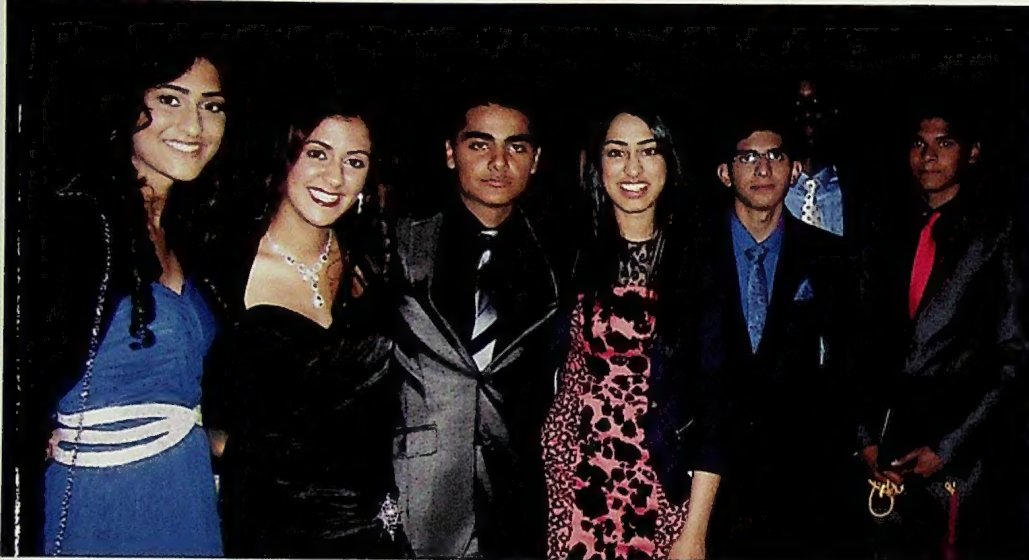

Yet, It's something that we must acknowledge.

Let the memories that we have collected in this stage of our life become sunbeams to warm us, a moonbeam to charm us, and a sheltering celebration to turn to. So nothing can harm us. Sweet is the memory of close friends and cherished memories. Like the mellow rays of the departing sun, this departure falls tenderly, yet sadly, on our hearts.

We all wanted a perfect ending. Yet now I've learned, the hard way, that all good things must come to an end, that some poems don't always have to rhyme, and some stories don't always have to have a clear beginning, middle, and end. Life is about not knowing, having to change, taking the moment and making the best of it, without knowing what's going to happen next.

So with that said, let us begin to take another big step forward into the unknown wilderness that is life. We've just finished three years of the most incredible, awkward, fun filled, enjoyable, moments of our lives so whose to say that this ride is coming to end, Pfft not me!

May we all live long. May we all be brave,
And the bridges we build, only light our way.
